Lone Wolf McQuade (1983) [108 min.]

Directed by Steve Carver

David Carradine birthday tribute! Chuck Norris is Lone Wolf McQuade, a renegade Texas lawman short with words but good with a gun... and even better with his black belt. But the job becomes personal and all hell is going to break loose when his daughter is attacked by ruthless arms smugglers leading to the ultimate kung fu showdown with their vicious kingpin (David Carradine) in this red-blooded, supremely entertaining action favorite!

Saturday • December 14

Don't Open till Christmas (1984) [86 min.]

Directed by Edmund Purdom

Sure, you've seen the holiday horror films with the killer dressed in Santa's red suit and cap, now experience the sleazy UK slasher sickie that finally puts a knife through the heart of Father Christmas. No Santa is safe when a masked maniac stalks the streets of London, savagely slaying anyone dressed as jolly old Saint Nick. See a series of Santas get sliced, diced, stabbed, and slaughtered in a variety of gruesome ways, while Scotland Yard tries to stop the bizarre brutality.

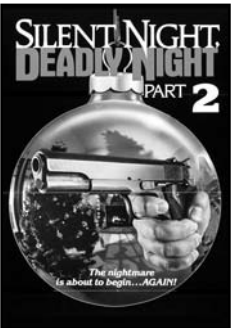

Saturday • December 21

Christmas Evil (1980) [92 min.]

Written and Directed by Lewis Jackson

Have yourself a deadly little Christmas with a psycho slasher treat! Traumatized as a young boy upon learning the truth about St. Nick, a depressed toy-maker tries to recapture the holiday spirit. But after years of ridicule and abuse, he dons a Santa suit to finally cross the names off his naughty list in a Yuletide reign of terror. Lewis Jackson's legendary holiday horror hit is filled with icy chills and pitch-black humor, making it mandatory annual viewing for all midnight movie maniacs!

Saturday • December 28

Silent Night, Deadly Night Part 2 (1987) [88 min.]

Directed by Lee Harry

Terror is coming home for Christmas! All Ricky wants is revenge following the death of his Santa-clad brother and this time he's going to get it in Silent Night, Deadly Night Part 2. Step by step, weapon by weapon, and victim by victim, he'll judge whose been naughty or nice. Cleverly recycling extensive footage from its controversial predecessor, this splatterific slasher sequel festively cranks the entertainment dial to 11 with an unforgettably unhinged performance by its star.

Elf (2003) [97 min.]

Directed by Jon Favreau

Capture the spirit of Christmas with Elf, a modern holiday classic for kids and adults! Will Ferrell delivers one of his best performances as Buddy the Elf, who travels from the North Pole to New York City. Plenty of adventures follow, including locating his biological father (James Caan), finding love and helping spread Christmas cheer.

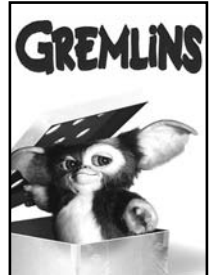

December 7 & 8 at 2:00pm

Gremlins (1984) [106 min.]

Directed by Joe Dante

You should know the rules by now: Don't expose them to bright light. Don't get them wet. And above all, don't feed them after midnight. Join Gizmo and all the other furry, monstrous Gremlins as they burst off the screen in the greatest small-town holiday adventure since It's A Wonderful Life! This mix of Norman Rockwell sentimentality and anarchic vandalism is a Christmas-comedy-horror classic from director Joe Dante.

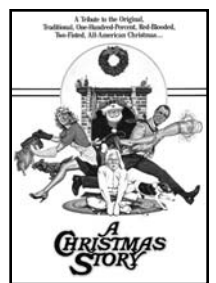

December 14 & 15 at 2:00pm

A Christmas Story (1983) [93 min.]

Directed by Bob Clark

Based on the writings of author Jean Shepherd, Bob Clark's beloved family favorite A Christmas Story perfectly captures the wintry magic of the season through a series of unforgettable vignettes. As 9 year old Ralphie (Peter Billingsley) pines for a Red Ryder B.B. gun to appear as the perfect gift under the tree, his parents, teacher and even the department store Santa all warn: "You'll shoot your eye out."

December 21 & 22 at 2:00pm

The Muppet Christmas Carol (1992) [86 min.]

Directed by Brian Henson

Revisit the timeless Dickens tale of compassion and charity with your prized puppet pals in the magical, musical The Muppet Christmas Carol! Ebenezer Scrooge (Michael Caine) is the greediest, grumpiest git in all of London until he's taken on a mystical journey of self-discovery by the three Ghosts of Christmas Past, Present and Yet to Come. Will this pilgrimage be enough to warm Scrooge's cold heart?

December 28 & 29 at 2:00pm

Singin' in the Rain (1952) [103 min.]

Directed by Gene Kelly and Stanley Donen

What a glorious feeling; the timeless musical triumph in 35mm! Gene Kelly, Debbie Reynolds and Donald O'Connor sing & dance their way through Singin' in the Rain, one of the greatest movie masterpieces ever to shine on screen! Set during Hollywood's "talkie" turmoil, a silent movie star is threatened by his leading lady's shrill voice when their new film is being made into a musical.
