RESERVOIR DOGS

(1992) [99 min.]

Written and Directed by Quentin Tarantino

Saturday • December 1

Dazed and Confused (1993) [102 min.]

Written and Directed by Richard Linklater

Perhaps the greatest hang out movie of all time, Dazed & Confused was a breakthrough hit for director Richard Linklater after the indie success of Slacker. This coming-of-age ensemble comedy set on the last day of school 1976 is a retrofitted nostalgia trip, defining not just that bicentennial summer, but the timeless experience of high school itself. Featuring early roles for Ben Affleck, Parker Posey, Adam Goldberg and Joey Lauren Adams, this stoner timepiece remains essential viewing.

Saturday • December 8

Death Race 2000 (1975) [80 min.]

Directed by Paul Bartel

Get set for Death Race 2000, a lethal coast-to-coast, no-holds-barred orgy of fast cars and flattened bodies in mankind's greatest sporting event ever. Drivers David Carradine, Sylvester Stallone, Roberta Collins, Martin Kove and cult movie icon Mary Woronov are putting the pedal to the metal, on the run to outmaneuver one another in Paul Bartel's biting satire on America's thirst for violence, as pitch black as it is blood red, beautifully shot by Tak Fujimoto, fresh off Malick's Badlands.

Saturday • December 15

Christmas Evil (1980) [94 min.]

Written and Directed by Lewis Jackson

Have yourself a deadly little Christmas with a psycho slasher treat! Traumatized as a young boy upon learning the truth about St. Nick, a depressed toy-maker tries to recapture the holiday spirit. But after years of ridicule and abuse, he dons a Santa suit to finally cross the names off his naughty list in a Yuletide reign of terror. Lewis Jackson's legendary holiday horror hit is filled with icy chills and pitch-black humor, making it mandatory annual viewing for all midnight movie maniacs!

Saturday • December 22

Silent Night, Deadly Night Part 2 (1987) [88 min.]

Directed by Lee Harry [Plus bonus surprise second holiday horror feature!]

Twice the terror! Scream with a nightmarish holiday horror favorite plus a frighteningly festive, top secret bonus feature for a stocking stuffer treat!

All Ricky wants is revenge following the death of his Santa-clad brother and he's going to get it as the nightmare is about to begin...again...in Silent Night, Deadly Night Part 2!

Saturday • December 29

New Year's Evil (1980) [85 min.]

Directed by Emmett Alston

Ring in the New Year with Cannon Films' sleazy slasher classic! As a new wave TV special rocks the airwaves, a deranged maniac makes obscene phone calls to the disc jockey host (Roz Kelly), threatening a murder as the clock hits twelve in each time zone. As the body count rises in this deliriously entertaining holiday bloodbath, our punk rock heroine may be next on the killer's grisly midnight hit list.

"Kiddee Matinees" on Saturday and Sunday at 2:00pm

All tickets $6 • Free kid-size popcorn for children 12 and under!

December 1 & 2 at 2:00pm

Batman Returns (1992) [126 min.]

Directed by Tim Burton

Celebrate a "Gotham Christmas" as Tim Burton's massively entertaining follow-up to his groundbreaking Batman blockbuster goes bigger and bolder with the Penguin (Danny DeVito), Catwoman (Michelle Pfeiffer), and corrupt businessman Max Shreck (Christopher Walken) out to rid the world of the caped crusader (Michael Keaton). Batman Returns remains one of film's most ambitious sequels, showcasing incredible production design and visual effects along with standout performances.

December 8 & 9 at 2:00pm

The Nightmare Before Christmas (1993) [76 min.]

Directed by Henry Selick

A delightfully ghoulish stop motion stunner, Tim Burton's spellbinding musical fairy tale is a feast for the imagination. When Jack Skellington, the Pumpkin King of Halloween, stumbles across the festive delights of Christmas, he decides he must escape his same spooky routine and make the Yuletide his own. But his merry mischief causes more mayhem than magic, proving our skeletal star still has much to learn about the true meaning of the holiday. Director Henry Selick crams exquisite detail into every inch of the frame while Danny Elfman provides the tunes.

December 15 & 16 at 2:00pm

The Muppet Christmas Carol (1992) [86 min.]

Directed by Brian Henson

Revisit the timeless Dickens tale of compassion and charity with your prized puppet pals in The Muppet Christmas Carol! Ebenezer Scrooge (Michael Caine) is the greediest, grumpiest git in all of London until he's taken on a mystical journey of self-discovery by the three Ghosts of Christmas Past, Present and Yet to Come. The Ghosts hope to prove to Scrooge that money can't buy happiness by observing various moments in his life in which his selfishness drastically changed the lives of himself and those around him. Experience the Muppets in a beloved family classic!

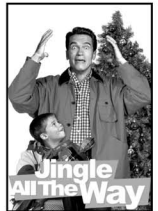

December 22 & 23 at 2:00pm

Jingle All the Way (1996) [89 min.]

Directed by Brian Levant

It's Turbo time for Jingle All the Way! In this hilariously madcap critique of crass Christmas consumerism, suburban dad Arnold Schwarzenegger is making a last minute dash to put the much sought-after Turbo Man doll under the tree in time for the big day. But when every store is sold out, he'll have to compete with Sinbad and other frantic shoppers to make his son's holiday dreams come true.

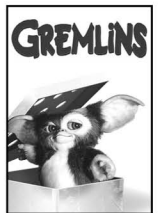

December 29 & 30 at 2:00pm

Gremlins (1984) [106 min.]

Directed by Joe Dante

You should know the rules by now: Don't expose them to bright light. Don't get them wet. And above all, don't feed them after midnight. So join Gizmo and all the other furry, monstrous Gremlins as they burst off the screen in the greatest small-town holiday adventure since It's A Wonderful Life! This bonanza of proliferating pests is a Christmas-comedy-horror classic resulting from the collaboration between director Joe Dante, writer Chris Columbus, and Steven Spielberg's Amblin Entertainment.
